

SLS Work Group Out-Brief

Issues – Group C

- There is no clear coordinated national strategy to provide guidance for multiple aspects related to an IND event.
- There is not a common strategy to allow for an intergovernmental common operating picture to provide situational awareness when information flow is limited as a result of degraded communications.
- There is a requirement to educate the intergovernmental community on the implications of a catastrophic incident and how it relates to and consequence management.

FEMA

BUILDING STRONG®

SLS Solutions Out-Brief

Issue: Plans, Strategies and Guidance	Proposed Courses of Action with Lead Element
There is no clear coordinated national strategy to provide guidance for multiple aspects related to an IND event.	- Coordinated effort to circulate and educate local/state officials on the threat/risk/vulnerabilities. - Joint local/state/Federal public information campaign - Political will to endorse and embrace the effort at all levels of government. - Scaled plans to address the risk/vulnerabilities - Sharing of need to know information to first responder community.

FEMA

SLS Solutions Out-Brief

Issue: C2, Coordination, Communication, COP	Proposed Courses of Action with Lead Element
There is not a common strategy to allow for an intergovernmental common operating picture to provide situational awareness when information flow is limited as a result of degraded communications.	- Matrix/Crosswalk of individual state/regional requirements and activation triggers. - Standardized Situation Reports to improve accuracy of the operational picture. - Redundant interoperability communications at every level of government. - Continue the catastrophic planning initiative to completion/exercise/revise.
 FEMA	 BUILDING STRONG®

SLS Solutions Out-Brief

Issue: C2, Coordination, Communication, COP	Proposed Courses of Action with Lead Element
There is a requirement to educate the intergovernmental community on the implications of a catastrophic incident and how it relates to and consequence management.	- No Action

FEMA

